NEWS NOTES.

Hardin county streams are higher than since 1847.

Judge Alexander Martin, one of the leading jurists of Missouri, is dead.

Hugh McKenzie, a groom of eight hours, was killed by an elevator shaft at Detroit.

John D. Rockefeller has given another million dollars to the University of Chicago.

Rev. J. Campbell Fair, one of the most prominent Episcopal divines in the West, is dead at Omaha.

Allison E. Blades, a 16-year-old boy, shot and killed his stepfather at Natchez, Miss., in defense of his mother.

Col. John W. Elia, president of the Civil Service Reform League, of Chicago, died in a Philadelphia hospital.

Standard Oil Company is looking to Kentucky to make up for the decreased production of crude oil in Pennsylvania.

John Planerick, of Cleveland, O., shot and wounded Mary Novak and killed himself because she would not marry him.

A Nicaraguan editor says that Godfrey Hunter, Jr., killed Fitzgerald in self-defense after Fitzgerald had slapped his face and fired at him.

The expected argument of the democratic primary injunction case has been postponed at Frankfort. The matter goes over to the January term.

The Japanese Government has purchased X-ray machines to be turned on dishonest employees of the mine who steal gold coins by swallowing them.

Burglars blew up the safe in the post-office at Big Stone Gap, and secured $800 in stamps and $400 in cash. They also blew open Hambley Bros.' safe and secured $100.

John Best, a lunatic, butchered Jasper Clegg to death with a razor at La Peer, Mich., badly wounded his mother and sister and when cornered by the sheriff, killed himself with a revolver.

Secretary Hay has sent to the German Government notification that American ships must not be interfered with in their trading with Venezuela unless the prohibition applies to all shipping.

David A. Jennings, who sued 29 prominent residents of Salem, Ind., for $200,000 damages, obtained a judgment for $510 from a jury in the Federal Court. Jennings charged that the people of Salem had persecuted him.

At Owensboro in the trial of John Webber, charged with whitecapping one of the defendants, Bud Speaks, turned State's evidence. Speaks said John Webber forced him at the point of a pistol to aid in whipping old man Dowdell.

The coal famine in New York has been partially relieved. Prisoners in the Tombs and half the population in the poorer quarters went without fires Sunday night. The situation is still serious. The Reading railroad is sending all its coal as fast as it can, but a shortage of locomotives is causing some delay.

Twelve young men employed by the Department of Agriculture have started on a long course of adulterated food diet. They began with beef treated with borax and other chemicals to preserve it for shipping. The specialists in the Agricultural Department desire to ascertain if the objection of foreign customs officials to American packed beef are well founded.

children. But there can be no joy in motherhood without health, and without health for the mother there can be no health for the child.

It is of vital importance for women to know that the health of mother and child is in general entirely within woman's control. The thousands of women who have used Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription when expecting motherhood, have testified that it made them healthy and happy in the days of waiting, made the baby's advent practically painless, and gave them health to give their children.

Mrs. W. J. Kidder, of Hill Dale Farm (Rensselaer Center), Kenosha, Wis., writes: "During the past year I found myself expecting maternity, and in rapidly failing health. I suffered dreadfully from bloating and urinary difficulty. I was growing perceptibly weaker each day and suffered much sharp pain at times. I felt that something must be done. I sought your advice and received a prompt reply. Took twelve bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and also followed your instructions. I began to improve immediately, my health became excellent, and I could do all my own work (we live on a good sized farm). I walked and rode all I could and enjoyed it. I had a short, easy confinement and have a healthy baby boy."

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages, is given away. Send 21 one-cent stamps for expense of mailing only, for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the volume bound in cloth. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

W. H. Dulaney, a Louisville capitalist, is dead.

Andijan, a town of 30,000 souls in Russian Central Asia, was destroyed by an earthquake.

The United States demanded of Corea the payment of $1,500,000 due to the builders of an electric railroad.

The Cumberland Telephone Co. will vote Dec. 29 on increasing its capital stock from $10,000,000 to $20,000,000.

George Moorman, Adjutant of the United Confederate Veterans, died suddenly at his desk in New Orleans.

Three cases of bubonic plague were discovered on a steamer which arrived at New York from Durban, South Africa.

Nahm Bros. and James Culbertson, dry goods merchants at Bowling Green, lost $35,000 by fire in their business houses.

Arbitration has been decided upon by the Venezuelan government as a means of escape from the present international difficulty.

The men-of-war in Admiral Dewey's fleet have been placed during the holidays under disposition of the Secretary of the Navy in view of the complications arising in Venezuelan waters.

R. C. Whayne, a Louisville business man, was found dead in a field near his home with a gunshot wound through his left breast. He carried $150,000 in life insurance taken out within a year.

President Baer, of the Reading railroad, has criticised in sharp fashion the independent coal operators for raising the price of coal. He claims that the railroads are doing what they can to keep the price down.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of the L. & N. Railroad Company in Louisville, August Belmont was re-elected chairman of the board of directors. He says there will be no change in the management.

President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, created a sensation at Wednesday's session of the Coal Strike Commission by declaring that he could prove that railroads fostered immigration to the coal fields.

MATRIMONIAL.

J. R. Cain, a widower of 35, and Miss Lucile Horton, 15, were married here yesterday.

W. B. Rucker, of Danville, and Miss Helen D. Boyd, of Berry, were married at Lexington.

George Petrey, aged 32, and Miss Parlie Petrey, 17, were made one at George Petrey's yesterday.

Several contemplated marriages will have to be postponed on account of the scarcity of houses for sale or rent or boarding places not already full to the limit—Sommerset Journal.

N. O. True, a clever business man of McKinney, and Miss Fronia Montgomery, a pretty young lady of the same town, came to Stanford Wednesday and were married at the Baptist parsonage by Rev. O. M. Huey.

Invitations to the marriage of E. W. Barnett, pastor of the Baptist church, Jellico, and Miss Mary E. Garnett, the eldest daughter of James Garnett, of Columbia, have been received here. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride, Dec. 24. The Rev. W. P. Harvey, of Louisville, will officiate.

CARTER-HUGHES.—Mr. Ernest T. Carter and Miss Myrtle Hughes drove to Danville Wednesday evening and were married in the parlors of the Gilcher Hotel at 6:30 o'clock by Rev. J. W. Hagin. The attendants were Dr. P. W. Carter and Miss Stella McClary. Mrs. Julia Hughes and Mr. Wearan Hughes, mother and brother of the bride, accompanied the happy pair to Danville and witnessed the ceremony. After supper at the Gilcher, Mr. and Mrs. Carter returned to Stanford and are now keeping house in the Bronaugh cottage on East Main street, which Mr. Carter had handsomely furnished. The bride, who is a charming lady, was dressed in a tailor suit of blue and her beauty never showed to better advantage. She is highly accomplished, exceedingly popular and Mr. Carter is deserving of congratulation for having won so excellent a young woman. That she will prove a helpmeet in all the world implies, we are most certain and that her husband will always bless the day she took him "for better or for worse," we have no shadow of doubt. Mr. Carter is an industrious, moral young man, full of push and enterprise, and proud of the splendid woman he has taken for the journey through life, he will not only make a "good provider," but a kind and attentive husband. May the years that are to come to them be as full of happiness as the honeymoon they are now enjoying, is the sincere wish of their friend, the INTERIOR JOURNAL.

Cut this out and take it to Craig & Hocker's drug store and get a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, the best physic. They cleanse and invigorate the stomach, improve the appetite and regulate the bowels. Regular size, 25c per box.

CRAB ORCHARD.

Fat hogs are scarce and quoted at 6 to 6 1/2c. Turkeys are quoted at 7c with only a few on the market.

Rev. J. M. Bruce closed his meeting at White's school house last week on account of suffering with a severe cold.

If you want some pretty and cheap millinery goods, call in and see Mesdames Tatem and King, who will sell cheap for cash.

Vic Owens and wife, of Lebanon Junction, are visiting Mrs. John Riddle. Miss Catherine Bronaugh is anticipating a pleasant visit to her friend, Miss Louise Stapp, at Campbellsville.

Let Miss Hettie Harris send in your subscriptions for magazines, papers and educational games, saving you time, postage, etc. Let her know what you want and she will order it for you at any time.

Miss Sallie McWhorter will open a select school at the public school building the first Monday in January. Dr. Hickie will close his school the 23rd. He will attend medical lectures in Louisville after the holidays. His pupils regret to give him up.

Dr. F. M. Clinckscale is a guest at the Gover Hotel. David Smith has moved his family into his new home near the Wm. White farm. Henry Fish, of Mt. Vernon, was in town a few days ago. Miss Lula McClure has gone to Paint Lick to spend the winter with relatives. Harry Evans, of Danville, is spending the winter with his grandfather, Mr. George W. Evans. Sam Magee, of Livingston, was visiting his mother, Mrs. Kate Magee.

We wish we could write as many pleasant things of our little city as Mrs. Stapp does of Somerset. Never mind we have one public improvement of which to be proud, our handsome brick, up-to-date bank building, which will be completed shortly. What has become of our prince of telephone men, Mr. A. H. Bastin, that no messages can come to us from our friends in our sister city of Somerset? We wish Santa Claus would put one in our home so that we might say "hello" sometimes to our absent friends.

CHRISTMAS.

Santa Claus will soon be here; So will Christmas time; Gladdest season of the year, Bells the sweetest chime. Air is crisp and bright and clear; Ground is white with rime; Poets write stuff like this here All the time.

Christmas joys and Christmas cheer Make the days sublime; Bestest days of all the year In whatever clime. Heaven seems to come anear; To its heights we climb; All the world to us seems dear—Christmas time.

We are broke—or very near—Gone is our last dime, Joy is sweet, but costs us dear, (Seem as all the time.) Poets fill us full of cheer, Alas full of rhyme. Sweetest season of the year—Christmas time.

OCHILTREE'S JEST.—The late Col. Tom Ochiltree had a joke that he worked frequently on the unsuspecting. He would take out of his pocket a letter, turn the pages over and say with a laugh:

"Here is a letter from my friend Mackay. Mackay is a queer speller. He slips up on the easiest words some times. Here for instance, he writes 'dog.' Now, I'll give you five guesses and I'll bet you a bottle of wine that you can't tell me how he spells dog."

The colonel's listener, if he took the bet, would guess that the word was spelled "dawg," "dogg," or "daug," etc., till his five guesses were done. Then Col. Ochiltree would say "You lose, my boy. Mackey spells dog 'd o g' here."

Mr. J. M. Alverson, of Stanford, has announced as a candidate to represent Lincoln county in the Legislature. Mr. Alverson is eminently fitted for the place and from personal knowledge we know him to be an excellent gentleman. What the State needs is more young men of such qualities to enter into law-making body and politics of our country. We bespeak for him a hearty support and hope he may get the full co-operation which he so justly deserves.—Harrodsburg Herald.

A Liberal Offer.

The undersigned will give a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets to any one wanting a reliable remedy for disorders of the stomach, biliousness or constipation. This is a new remedy and a good one. Craig & Hocker.

Forty years ago one sailor was required to every 110 tons carried by a ship. Modern machinery has reduced the proportion to one sailor to every 500 tons.

On Wednesday, Dec. 24, Miss Jennie, the handsome daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dee Gulley, will be led to the hymenal altar by Mr. Ike Dunn, a prosperous farmer, of the Bryantville vicinity, and son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dunn, of that section.

Two Garrard citizens, J. H. Arnold and Duncan Goodloe, have been honored by Gen. Bennett H. Young, Commander-in-chief of the Kentucky Dep't. Confederate Veterans. Mr. Arnold was asked to serve as assistant Inspector General, and Mr. Goodloe in the Quartermaster's department, both to have the rank of major.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Quarterly meeting will be held at the Methodist church Saturday and Sunday. Dr. Deering will preach.

Rev. E. K. Cox will preach at the McKinney Baptist church at 2 P. M. Saturday and Sunday morning and night.

Rev. R. R. Noel has been unanimously called to the Baptist churches at Silver Creek, Brodhead and Pittsburg for another year. He preaches on the first Sunday at Silver Creek, the second at Brodhead and the fourth at Pittsburg. All of these churches have made good showings since he became pastor of them.

Bilious Colic Prevented.

Take a double dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as soon as the first indication of the disease appears and a threatened attack may be ward off. Hundreds of people who are subject to attacks of bilious colic use the remedy in this way with perfect success. For sale by Craig & Hocker, Stanford.

She fixes lots of fancy dishes For the table. Yes, That she is skilled in this respect He's willing to confess. But when he sits him down to eat, Good food is what he wishes, And not the fancy flowers and things She's painted on the dishes.

Money must be plentiful in Guatemala if Fitzgerald could get his hands on $3,000 on the mere promise to kill Godfrey Hunter, Jr. The republican quotation on Kentucky governors never reached that figure.—Louisville Times.

Mrs. Mary Johnson, aged 69, is dead at Nicholasville.
